

SAVE THE DATE

March 30—April 1, 2012

Oregon 4-H Camp Leadership Conference with Michael Brandwein

Looking for a way to spice up your camp training and improve your camper outcomes?

We've got you covered!

Who should attend?

All staff, volunteers and older youth who work in Oregon's 4-H programs with junior and intermediate age youth.

Location: Oregon 4-H Center, Salem, OR

Cost: $40.00 per participant for meals

What is included? The camp committee will cover:

- The 4-H Center's lodging fee .
- 1 van or car per county to travel to the 4-H Center.
- All presenter and program costs.

See detailed program information on the reverse side of this flyer!

Michael Brandwein (michaelbrandwein.com) is one of the top experts and trainers of persons in the fields of camp, education, and youth development. Michael is the number one national bestselling author in the camp field, with five consecutive bestsellers, including his 2011 book, Skill of the Day: What Great Youth Leaders Do & Say. He is a frequent keynote speaker for national organizations that serve youth, families, teachers, and others. Michael's camp experience includes everything from front-line counselor and supervisor to camp administrator.

Michael Brandwein, Educator/author/speaker

March 30, Friday (4-5:30) There's No Such Thing As A Born Leader: The Leading Secret to Leading Others

If we believe certain people "have it" and others "don't" -- then a dangerous myth is preventing us from being our best. Leaders are successful because of what they say and do, and this session is packed with examples of what these things are and how we can use them to bring out the best in young people.

March 31 Saturday (8:30-noon) BUILDING BETTER CHILDREN: How to Teach Young People Good Choices & Outstanding Life Skills

This nationally acclaimed session demonstrates specific and practical techniques we can use immediately to teach life skills, enhance positive self images and confidence, and deal with behavior in more positive and confident ways, including:

- exactly what to say and do to teach cooperation, caring, responsibility, respect, persistence, patience, independence, and more
- conquering the biggest barrier to positive self-image: moving kids to "Group Four"
- the key secret to developing resilient young people: how to make positive self-concepts that really stick
- making praise credible and effective
- increasing positive communication to develop warmer, more supportive relationships

Saturday (1:15 - 3:00) Talking It Out: Using Outstanding Listening Skills to Teach Communication & Self-Understanding to Young People

Based on his three Emmy® award-winning television programs on communicating with children, Michael demonstrates exactly what to say and do to:

- help them better express and understand their feelings
- teach how to solve problems by talking about them in constructive ways
- avoid the things adults do unconsciously that block communication
- how to listen to conflict to conflict and disagreement with respect
- build credible and trusting relationships

Saturday (3:15-4:00) Play With Purpose: Outstanding Fun Activities that Teach Skills for Life

We'll celebrate the end of our day with an "on your feet," rollicking fun session of creative games and activities that you can use to lead any kids, any age, indoors and out, with no props or preparation required—and every one of them provides practice in essential skills for life.

