

Oregon State 4-H Ambassadors Job Description

It is both an honor and a responsibility to be selected as a State 4-H Ambassador. You are a representative of the Oregon 4-H program and a role model to all 4-H youth.

Roles of a State 4-H Ambassador

- Represent 4-H to the public
- Promote 4-H to potential members and volunteers – make families and youth more aware of 4-H and the benefits it offers
- Demonstrate the impact 4-H has on the lives of young people and the community
- Promote 4-H to potential donors and give them opportunities to support the program
- Be a resource to county and state 4-H staff

Objectives

- Develop personal leadership and communication skills and self-confidence
- Model effective youth-adult partnerships
- Change or improve the image of 4-H among selected audiences

Requirements

- Attend the yearly ambassador training/retreat
- Participate in bi-monthly phone meetings
- Help plan and conduct 4-H state events by serving on a state committee
- Post on the state 4-H Facebook page (or submit items for posting)
- Make a poster for State Fair
- Work at one or more State events (State Fair, Summer Conference, Experience Citizenship, etc.)

Additional responsibilities (do at least one per year)

- Help with a state-wide community service project
- Organize a local project
- Speak at the state legislature
- Attend a 4-H Foundation Board meeting
- Visit counties to talk about the ambassador program, congress, etc.
- Help counties with trainings (junior leader, records, etc.)
- Do a radio interview
- Write an article for a newspaper
- Visit schools to talk about 4-H
- Speak to another organization about 4-H
- Attend the 4-H Blazer basketball game
- Use social media during state events
- Volunteer at Ag-Fest
- Other (have your project approved by one of the state coordinators)