Donors: Glenn A. Klein Trust Fund
Bonnie and Harold Youngberg

Award: Three educational scholarships of $1250 each. At least one to be given to a boy and at least one to a girl.

Background:
This scholarship is presented in the memory of Hulda S. Klein, mother of former 4-H’ers Bonnie Klein Youngberg, Sally Klein Heinz and Glenn Klein. A former school teacher Mrs. Klein spent over 40 years as a 4-H Leader after moving to Aumsville in Marion County.

Mrs. Klein was most interested in and made her greatest contribution in the development of homemaking and horticulture skills by young people. She believed that participation in the 4-H program builds character, leadership, and citizenship in young people.

Dr. Glenn Klein served as an Extension 4-H Youth Development Agent in Jackson County for seven years, and then moved to Oregon State University where he served for thirty years as an Extension Leadership Development Specialist and Professor of Extension Education.
