

USHLI TO LAUNCH YOUTH PROGRAM IN CHICAGO

USHLI is proud to announce that Ernie G, one of the hottest, multi-talented, young Latino entertainers in the country, will officially launch the 2017 Student Leadership Series (SLS) on Thursday, February 16 at the Sheraton Grand Chicago Hotel.

35TH USHLI
NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Ernie's unique form of comedy, often referred to as "Latino Edutainment - Educating and Entertaining with a Latino Flavor," motivates students to stay in school, improve their academic performance, graduate, and pursue some level of post-secondary education or training. His comedy has been seen by millions of TV viewers on shows, such as Comedy Central's "Make Me Laugh," B.E.T.'s "Comic View," Ed McMahon's "Next Big Star," & Sí TV's "Funny is Funny!" He is one of the original stars of Galavisión's hit comedy show "Qué Locos!" hosted by George Lopez, - appearing six times, along with two appearances on "The Best of Qué Locos!" He has appeared on HBO Latino's "Habla Again," MUN2's "Loco Comedy Jam," as well as Sí TV's "Latino Laugh Festival!" and their hip new show, "Inside Joke!"

Arguably one of the largest student events in the nation, the 2017 Student Leadership Series Launch will convene over 3,000 high school students, teachers, and counselors from the Midwest. The event will include a Motivational Student Rally, Workshops on Leadership Development and Financial Aid, and access to the nationally acclaimed Career & College Recruitment Fair. Attendance is FREE and USHLI will provide a light lunch. Schools are only asked to provide their own transportation.
