

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE INFORMATION

Oregon 4-H Outreach Leadership Institute Part III: Career Exploration 2017

On behalf of the Oregon State University 4-H Outreach Team, we want to notify you that we are ready to share our knowledge at the Oregon 4-H Outreach Leadership Institute (Part III) from May 26 to May 28, 2017.

Emergencies: If a family has an emergency and needs to reach their child, call Mario Magaña at (503) 931-7206 in English or Spanish 24 hours a day. Jaime Guillen at 541-619-1870 or Lulu Rodriguez at 541-737-8798.

What to bring: A checklist is attached for your convenience.

Do not bring: Alcohol, non prescribed drugs, knives, firearms, lighters, fireworks, radios, MP3 players, iPod, iPad, etc. Note: Cell phones are allowed. However, they must be put away during presentations and workshop sessions.

Transportation: All camp students and volunteers must provide their own transportation to and from the Institute. If the student is younger than 18, we encouraged that the student be picked up and dropped off by their parents to the Institute. If you have any questions regarding this matter, you are welcome to contact us at (541) 737-8798 or (541)737-0925 or 541-737-4660 via email 4h.outreach@oregonstate.edu or jaime.guillen@oregonstate.edu

Check in: Arrival time is at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, May 26th at Econo Lodge 935 NW Garfield Ave, Corvallis, OR 97330
Students will be randomly assigned their room according to their age and gender (boys and girls will be in separate rooms). Two students of the same gender will be assigned to share a queen-sized bed. If any student wishes not to share a bed for any reason we please ask that, you bring a sleeping bag and pillow.

For those students that have prearrange with us and will not be staying overnight or attending the full Institute, they need to check in Saturday (May 27th) morning at 7:30 at the same location.

If anyone must arrive late, please, notify Mario Magaña at 503-931-7206, Lulu Rodriguez at 541-399-0501, Jaime Guillen at 541-619-1870. When arriving to the Institute, make sure to check in.

Check out: For those of you that will be picked up by your parents/guardians/teachers, they should arrive promptly at 11:30 a.m. on Sunday, May 28. Pick up/check out will be in the same location as check in.

If you will be leaving the Institute early, please fill out the early release form and let us know and make sure to check out.

Food: We provide three meals a day and snacks in the evenings.

Camp Staff: The camp director is Mario Magaña Álvarez, and the director assistants are Jaime Guillen, Lulu Rodriguez. We also have personnel from OSU, volunteers, parents, class instructors, and 4-H Extension agents.

Insurance: Group medical insurance coverage has been provided for students during the event through American Income Life Insurance Company.

Change of Plans: If your plans change and you will not be able to attend the Institute, let us know as soon as possible so that someone on the waiting list will be able to take your place. Please, contact Lulu at 541-399-0501, or Jaime at 541-619-1870. You are also welcome to email us at 4h.outreach@oregonstate.edu. Or at jaime.guillen@oregonstate.edu
